BY

REV. D. C. JOHN.

PHILADELPHIA:

Published by LEE & WALKER, 922 Chestnut Street.

W. H. BONER & CO., 1102 CHESTNUT ST.;

WHENEVER a new author appears in a well cultivated field of literature, there is a natural desire on the part of the public to know something about the history of his adventure. To all such inquiries we reply, that the following pages are <sup>the</sup> recreations of an amateur, and not the work of a professional song-maker.

Prompted by a love of sacred song, and impressed with its importance as an element in Sabbath School instruction, we devoted the spare moments of an otherwise busy life to writing hymns and tunes specially adapted to that work. In two years' time sufficient material had accumulated to form the basis of the work, which, upon being submitted to the criticism of friends, was pronounced sufficiently meritorious to warrant publication.

In presenting it to the public, attention is called to the following special features:—

I. OLD HYMNS.—We have introduced many classic hymns from the collections of the leading denominations, which, though enshrined in the hearts of adult Christians, are practically unknown to the children of the Sabbath School.

Although they are the best sacred lyrics in the language, they have been ignored in Sabbath School books, and their place supplied with inferior and ephemeral songs, to satisfy an injudicious and vulgar taste for novelty. We hope our effort to popularize these venerable gems by easy and spirited airs, will be approved by every Sabbath School officer who prefers lofty poetic conception to religious commonplace.

II. NEW HYMNS.—These have been selected with care, and while a few may fall below the true lyric, there are many, which, we believe, will live beyond the edition which gives them birth. We praise the Sabbath School and teachers sparingly, and do not attempt to juvenize the idea of God by the application of pet names. The essence of Christian experience and hope is discussed in the hymns, "Guiding Star," "Praise in the Forest," "Along the River deep and wide," "O City of the Jasper Wall," "Mission of Angels," etc., and no hymn has been admitted, which does not specifically enforce some practical Christian doctrine. Wherever possible, the hymns have been duly accredited; where no credit is given, the author is either unknown, or the hymn is so extensively re-written as to destroy its identity. Quite a number were written by the author, and now appear for the first time in print.

III. THE MUSIC.—An experience of twenty years in the Sabbath School proves that difficult or spiritless music is thrown aside at the first trial. We have, therefore, endeavored to wed the thought presented in our hymns to congenial, spirited, and easy airs, and all unnecessary chromatic ornamentation has been conscientiously avoided. We write not for the praise of adepts, but for the edification of the children, whose wants we aspire to supply.

Finally, acknowledging our indebtedness to J. H. Tenney, Prof. Jno. R. Sweney, and others, for valuable contributions to the work, we now send it forth upon its mission. That the blessing of Him who tuned our lips to song, and made it a part of his worship, may accompany it, is the earnest prayer of THE AUTHOR.

THE GUIDING STAR.

THE GUIDING STAR.

D. C. JOHN.

Fast.

1. Low on the night ho - ri - zon, Be-hold the na - tal star      Proclaims the new-born Saviour, On Bethle'ms plains afar.
 2. To guide the wond'ring Ma-gi, On wing of flame it sped;      And standing o'er the manger, Reveal'd his lowly bed.

Prepare your richest o - dors, Sweet incense, myrrh, and gold; Go hail the Roy - al Stranger, By ancient seers foretold.
 The worshippers approach him, With gifts and odors rare,      And low be-fore him bending, The Son of God de-clare.

3. Though long that star has faded,
 On eastern sky and shore,
 It lives in song and story,
 And shall forever more.
 For now th'exalted Savior,
 Upon his Father's throne,
 Shines purer far, and brighter,
 Than e'er the symbol shone.

4. Shine on, oh, blessed Day-star
 Wherever man hath trod;
 Bring back each long-lost wand'rer
 To happiness and God.
 Arise, "Desire of Nations,"
 Thy brightness now display;
 Dispel our night of sorrow,
 And usher in the day!

1. 'Tis sweet<sup>1st</sup> to work for Je - sus in this life's lit-tle day, To spread around "the joyful sound," as those for-giv - en may.

To tell his lov - ing kind-ness, his prom-ises so true; To urge the young that they may come and trust this Savior too.

CHORUS.

mf We'll work, we'll work, work while 'tis call'd to-day, we'll work, we'll work yes, work while yet we may.
we'll work we'll work we'll work we'll work we'll work

2. 'Tis sweet to work for Jesus; he this our one desire,
Our purpose still to do his will, whatever he require.
No action is too lowly, no work of love too small;
If Christ but lead, we may indeed well follow such a call.
Chorus.—We'll work, &c.

3. 'Tis sweet to work for Jesus—oh! weary not of this,
But onward press with cheerfulness, though rough the pathway is.
Hold on unmoved and patient, till he shall call thee home,
With joy to stand at God's right hand, to serve before the throne.

"It is I!" O Jesus! speak it
When the death-dew damps my brow;
Let me hear thee softly whisper,
"I am with thee even now."
Then no more shall death affright me,
Knowing thee, my Savior, nigh;
Feeling infinite compassion
In the blessed "It is I!"

And I long to hear those ac - cents, Tell - ing me that thou art near.
Where I face to face shall see thee, Whom not hav - ing seen, I love.
But its gloom shall flee most sure - ly At the mu - sic of that sound.

Doomed by guilt to endless pains;
Justice now revokes the sentence,
Mercy calls you, break your chains.
Come and worship, etc.

1. Bright-est and best of the sons of the morn-ing, Dawn on our dark-ness and lend us thine aid,
 2. Say shall we yield Him, in-cost-ly de-vo-tion, O-dors of E-den, and off'-rings di-vine;

The first system of music is in G major (one flat) and 2/4 time. It consists of a treble and bass staff. The melody is in the treble staff, and the accompaniment is in the bass staff. The key signature has one flat (B-flat). The time signature is 2/4. The music ends with a double bar line and a repeat sign.

Star of the East, the hor-i-zon a-dorn-ing, Guide where our in-fant Re-deem-er is laid.
 Gems of the moun-tain, and pearls of the o-cean, Myrrh from the for-est, and gold from the mine?

The second system of music continues the melody and accompaniment from the first system. It is in the same key and time signature. The music ends with a double bar line and a repeat sign.

Cold on his cra-dle, the dew-drops are shin-ing, Low lies his head with the beasts of the stall,
 Vain-ly we off-er each am-ple ob-la-tion, Vain-ly with gifts would his fa-vor se-secure;

The third system of music continues the melody and accompaniment from the second system. It is in the same key and time signature. The music ends with a double bar line and a repeat sign.

love to go to the Sab - bath School.

2. 'Tis there I learn the wondrous plan,
 Contrived to save rebellious man;
 How Christ his life a ransom gave,
 For sinful me,—my soul to save.—Chorus.

3. And when on earth our days are o'er,
 We'll meet in heav'n to part no more;
 Our teachers kind, we there shall greet,
 And oh! what joy 'twill be to meet

Andante.

1. One sweetly solemn thought Comes to me o'er and o'er, 'Tis that I'm nearer home to-day, Than e'er I've been before;

'Tis that I'm near-er home to-day, Than e'er I've been be-fore.

2. Nearer my Father's house,
Where many mansions be;
:: Nearer the solemn judgment throne,
Nearer the jasper sea. ::
3. Nearer the bound where life
Shall lay its burdens down;
:: Where I shall leave my ill-borne cross,
And take my blood-bought crown. ::
4. Oh, perfect then my trust,
Confirm my feeble faith,
:: And teach me fearlessly to stand
Upon the shore of death. ::

THE EVERGREEN SHORE.

D. C. JOHN.

1. We are joy - ous - ly voyag - - ing ov - er the main, Bound for the ev - er - green shore;
2. We have noth - ing to fear from the wind and the wave, Un - der our Savior's com - mand;

Where th' in-hab - i - tants nev - er of sick - ness com-plain, And fear the dread mon - ster no more.
And our hearts, in the midst of the dan - gers are brave, For Je - sus will bring us to land.

CHORUS.

Then let the hur - ri - cane roar, It will the soon - er be o'er; We will weather the blast

And we'll land at last, Safe on the ev - er - green shore.

3. Both the winds and the waves our commander controls;
Nothing can baffle his skill;
And his voice when the thundering hurricane rolls,
Can make the loud tempests be still.

4. Let the high-heaving billow and mountainous wave
Fearfully overhead break;
There is one by our side that can comfort and save,
There's one who will never forsake.

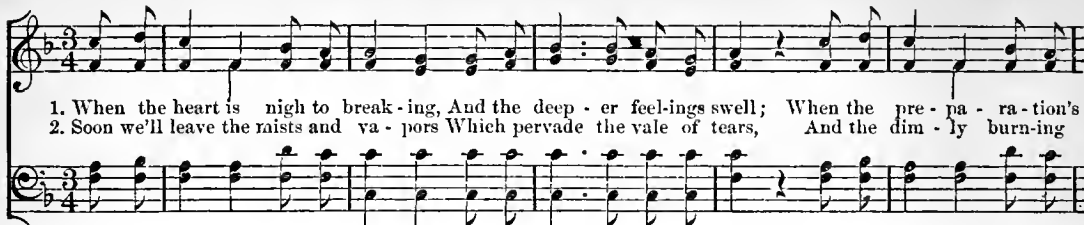

—Chor.

There we'll join the guardian angels
Who have piloted our way;
And the Lord's ordained evangels
Who have taught us not to stray.
We will fill the mansions glorious
With the voice of praises due;
Raise to Jesus, all victorious
Sweetest strains forever new.

EASTER SONG.

D. C. JOHN. 23

"But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the first-fruits of them that slept."—(1 COR. xv. 20.)

1. Christ the Lord is ris'n to day, Glo - ry Hal - le - lu - jah; Our tri - um - phant ho - ly day, Hal - le -
 2. Loves re - deem - ing work is done, Glo - ry Hal - le - lu - jah; Fought the fight, the bat - tle won, Hal - le - lu - jah to the Lord. He who died up - on the cross, Suffered to re - deem our loss, Hal - le - lu - jah to the Lord.

 lu - jah to the Lord. Lo the sun's e - clipse is o'er, Lo he sets in blood no more, Hal - le - lu - jah to the Lord.

CHORUS.

Hal - le - lu - jah, Hal - le - lu - jah praise the Lord; Hal - le - lu - jah, Hal - le - lu - jah - praise ye the Lord.

3. Vain the stone, the watch, the seal,
 Christ has burst the gates of hell;
 Death in vain forbids his rise,
 Christ hath opened Paradise,

4. Lives again our glorious King!
 Where, O Death, is now thy sting?
 Once he died our souls to save,
 Where's thy victory, boasting grave?

5. Soar we now where Christ has led,
 Follow our exalted head;
 Made like him, like him we rise,
 Ours the cross, the grave, the skies,

TEMPERANCE SONG.

D. C. JESS.

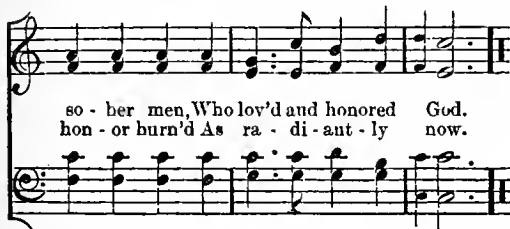

For Jonadab, the son of Rechab, . . . commanded us, saying, Ye shall drink no wine, ye, nor your sons, forever: (JER. XXXV. 6.)

1. When Re-chab's sons, in days of old, Abjur'd the ro - sy wine, They fill'd their cups of flash - ing gold With
 2. The grape in pur - ple clus - ters hung, To tempt their rov - ing eyes, And round them fair Bacchan - tes sung, Like so - ber men, Who lov'd and honored God.

 hon - or burn'd As ra - di - ant - ly now.

3. Bravo conquerors of appetite!
 Your clear heads reasoned well;
 The road could never lead aright
 Where Lot and Noah fell.
 All honor, then, to those who broke
 The fetters of the vine!
 All honor to the men who spoke
 The banishment of wine!

4. Brave men of old! the world shall own
 The greatness of your fame,
 And o'er the drunkard's reeling throne
 Shall blazon Rechab's name;
 Our men your words shall ne'er forget,
 As custom's chain they sever,
 And Adam's race shall echo yet,
 "We drink no more forever."

And the Great Father, who is near,
And doth all creatures view,
To every little child has given
Some needful work to do.

Kind deeds toward those with whom you live,
Kind words and actions right,
Shall, 'midst the world's deep darkness, give
A sparkling little light.

1. When great storms of life o'er - take us, When great des - o - la - tions come, When great shocks of sorrow shake us,
2. When life's waste and win't'ry o - cean Stretches des - o - late, be - fore, Toss-ing wild, in fierce com - mo - tion

When be - reft of friends and home; When from love's communion driven, On life's des - ert, bleak and broad,
Wide be - tween us and the shore; Then like glo - rious sunshine beaming From the op - 'ning sky a - bove,

Strength and joy shall still be given Through the changeless love of God.
Down through all our hearts comes streaming God's eternal, quenchless love.

3. When we yield up all for Jesus,
When all earthly friends disown,
When our heavenly Father sees us
Stricken for his sake alone;
All his heart on us is turning,
All his tender mercies move,
All his boundless love is yearning;
What shall conquer such a love?
4. What shall shake our trust deep-founded
On Jehovah's truth and might?
Though with gloom awhile surrounded,
Morn shall break and bring us light.
All our fear and tribulation
Vanish at his sovereign nod;
Lean our hearts for consolation
On the mighty love of God.

1. When shall we stand upon thy shore, O fair and love-ly Ev - er-more? That land for which our spirits yearn, To
 2. Here in this world, we toil and tire, Victims of un - ful-fill'd de-sire; Our life is dark with doubts and fears, Our which our wea-ry foot-steps turn; There the last hopes of youth await To greet us at the pearl-y gate, And eyes are dim with fruitless tears; From year to year we strive in vain, For dreams of glory or of gain, Yet joys too bright for earth to give, A - mid ce - les - tial glo - ries live.

 when we reach death's narrow tide, Our hands drop empty at our side.

3.

But thou, O blessed evermore,
 Our vanished treasures canst restore;
 Whate'er is good, and true, and pure,
 Thro' countless ages will endure.
 We do not work for time alone;
 If God our efforts will but own;
 From height to height we still shall soar,
 In the bright world of evermore.

1. I love to have the Sabbath come, For then I rise and quit my home, And haste to School with cheerful air, To meet my dearest teachers there. Then haste, O haste away; Then haste, O haste away, Then haste, O haste to the Sunday School.

2. From all the lessons I obtain,
May I a store of knowledge gain,
And early seek my Savior's face,
And gain from him supplies of grace.—Chorus.

3. And then, through life's remaining days,
I'll love to sing my Savior's praise,
And bless the kindness of his grace,
That brought me to this sacred place.—Chorus.

THE LIVING TEMPLE.

"For ye are the temples of the living God."—(II COR. vi. 16.)

D. C. JOHN.

3. Shall my joys be thus inconstant,
All along life's weary way?
Light and shadow interchanging,
Till I reach eternal day?
Let me now on faith's strong pinions,
To that blissful realm arise,
Where the soul is filled with sunshine,

While I'm toss'd on life's rough sea;
In the veil I cast my anchor,
When the angry billows roar;
Here I'll rest, 'mid wild commotion,
Rest securely, evermore.—Chorus.—In the veil, etc.

BEYOND THE SUNSET.

J. H. TENNEY.

1. Sha-dows o'er the vale are creeping, And the sun sinks to his rest; Twi-light draws her curtains soft-ly,
2. Time is fleet-ing, and I'm draw-ing, Near the sun-set of my life; Soon will end my wea-ry jour-ney,

Gold-en clouds hang in the west; Hush'd the noise of bu-sy la-bor, Toil has sought its wonted rest;
Soon will cease all toil and strife; Shadows o'er my path are fall-ing, Earthly vi-sions fade a-way;

Whisp'ring trees and murm'ring streamlets Sweetly soothe each troubled breast, Sweetly soothe each troubled breast.
Voi-ces, soft and sweet, are tell-ing Of an end-less o-rient day, Of an end-less o-rient day.

1. Hail beauteous bow of heav'n! To thee no cord is giv'n To spring thy curve; Tow'rd heav'n thy bow is bent, On heav'n thy strength is spent, Thine arch was nev - er meant A dart to servo.

3. Dark though the clouds appear,
Bright is thy radiant cheer,
Just as in life,
When storms of trouble rise,
Hope spans the gloomy skies,
And scattered darkness flies,
And yields the strife.

4. On thy prismatic face,
Jehovah's saving grace,
Appears in sight;
God's covenant with man,
Adorns thy graceful span,
And loves redeeming plan,
Dawns in thy light.

Thou gem, set in the cloud!
Pure and serene, while loud
The thunders roar;
Fit monument divine,
God's everlasting sign
Of peace to all mankind,
The wide world o'er.

3. O'er the misty mountains hastens
One I've waited long to see;
Soft as night-dew falls on meadows,
His kind bidding, "Come to me,"
Lo! the purple light of evening,
Stealing gently up the sky,
Bears me on its wings to meet him,
Is this death? 'Tis sweet to die. :||

4. Jesus calls me, and I'm going,
Where the shadows never come;
Now the desert lies behind me,
And I hasten to my home.
To my home beyond the sunset,
Far beyond the day's decline;
Where the glory is unfading,
:|| Where the golden portals shine. :||

5. If you cannot in the conflict
Prove yourself a soldier true—
If, where fire and smoke are thickest,
There's no work for you to do;
When the battle-field is silent,
You can go with careful tread,
You can bear away the wounded,
You can cover up the dead.

6. Do not, then, stand idly waiting,
For some greater work to do:
Fortune is a lazy goddess—
She will never come to you,

For I have much forgiven.

AWAY WITH OUR SORROW AND FEAR.

D. C. JOHN. 43

"And I, John, saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband."—
(REV. xxi. 2.)

1. A - way with our sor-row and fear, We soon shall re-cov-er our home; The cit-y of saints shall ap-pear,
2. Our mourning for-ev-er shall end, When rais'd by the life giv-ing Word, We see the new cit-y descend,

The day of e-ter-ni-ty come. From earth we shall quick-ly re-move, And mount to our na-tive a-bode;
A-dorn'd as a bride for her Lord; The cit-y so ho-ly and clean, No sor-row can breathe in the air;

The house of our Fa-ther a-bove, The pal-ace of an-gels and God.
No gloom of af-flict-ion, or sin; No sha-dow of e-vil is there.

By faith we already behold
That lovely Jerusalem here;
Her walls are of jasper and gold,
As crystal, her buildings are clear.
Immovably founded in grace,
She stands as she ever hath stood,
And brightly her builder displays,
And flames with the glory of God.

GUIDE ME O THOU GREAT JEHOVAH.

D. C. JONAS.

"Thou shalt guide me with thy counsel, and afterward receive me to glory."—(PSALM lxxiii. 24.)

1. Guide me, O thou great Je - ho - vah, Pil-grim through this barren land; I am weak but thou art might-y,

D. C. JOHN. 55

"Having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ, which is far better."—(PHIL. ii, 23.)

1. Oh, when shall we sweetly re-move? Oh, when shall we en-ter our rest? Re-turn to the Zi-on a-bove,
2. But an-gels themselves cannot tell The joys of that ho-li-est place, Where Je-sus is pleas'd to re-veal,

The mother of spir-it's distress'd, The cit-y of God the great King, Where sorrow and death are no mere;
The light of his hea-ven-ly face; When, caught in the rapturous flame, The sight be-at-if-ic they prove,

3. Thou knowest in the spirit of prayer
We long thy appearing to see;
Resigned to the burden we bear,
But longing to triumph with thee,
'Tis good at thy word to be here;
'Tis better in thee to be gone;
And see thee in glory appear,
And rise to a share in thy throne,

PRAY WITHOUT CEASING.

Andante. Solo.

1. Come, sad and weary, come, Do not de-lay;
2. Je - sus the sinner's friend, Thou dost a-tone;
3. Calm be thy resting place, Where saints abide;
4. What tho' you're poor in heart, Tho' faint and weak,

Come while 'tis morning, come, Come while 'tis day;
 Thou wilt our cause defend, Be - fore the throne;
 Je - sus the Prince of Peace, None else beside;
 Christ will the faith impart, To all who seek.

COME, O THOU TRAVELLER UNKNOWN.

D. C. JOHN.

"I will not let thee go, except thou bless me."—(GEN. xxxii. 26.)

I. Come O thou trav-el- er un-known, Whom still I hold but can - not see; My com- pan-y be-fore is gone,
And I am left a-lone with thee; With thee all night I mean to stay, And wres-tle till the break of day.

2. I need not tell thee who I am,
My sin and misery declare;
Thyself hast called me by my name,
Look on thy hands and read it there;
But who, I ask thee, who art thou?
Tell me thy name, and tell me now.

3. Yield to me now, for I am weak,
But confident in self-despair;
Speak to my heart in blessings speak,
Be conquered by my instant prayer;
Speak, or thou never hence shalt move,
And tell me if thy name is love.

KNEELING AT THE THRESHOLD.

D. C. JOHN.

"All the days of my appointed time, will I wait, till my change come."—(JOB xiv. 14.)

1. I'm kneel-ing at the threshold, Wea-ry, faint, and sore; Wait-ing for the dawning,
2. A wea-ry path I've travelled, 'Mid darkness, storm, and strife; Bear-ing many a bur-den,

For the opening of the door; Wait-ing till the Mas-ter, Shall bid me rise and come
And struggling for my life; But now the morn is break-ing, My toil will soon be o'er;

To the glo-ry of his presence, To the gladness of his home; To the glo-ry of his presence,
I'm kneel-ing at the threshold, My hand is on the door; I'm kneel-ing at the threshold,

CHORUS.

To the glad-ness of his home. O Lord, I wait thy pleasure, Thy time and way are best;
My hand is on the door. O Lord, I wait, etc.

But I'm wasted, worn, and weary; O, Fa-ther, give me rest.

Methinks I hear the voices,
Of blest ones as they stand,
Singing in the sunshine,
In the far-off sinless land;
O would that I were with thee,
Amid the shining throng;
Mingling in their adoration,
And joining in their song.—Cho.

4.

The friends that started with me,
Have entered long ago;
One by one they left me
Still struggling with the foe;
Their pilgrimage was shorter,
Their triumph sooner won,
And lovingly they'll hail me,
When all my toil is done.—Chorus.

5.

And with the blessed angels,
That know no grief or sin;
I see them by the portals,
Prepared to let me in.
O Lord, I wait thy pleasure,
Thy time and way are best;
But I'm wasted, worn, and weary,
O, Father, give me rest.—Chorus.

ALONG THE RIVER DEEP AND WIDE.

D. C. JOHN.

"We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord."—(II COR. v. 8.)Slow.

1. A-long the riv-er, deep and wide, We tim-id pil-grims fondly stray, And see our lov'd ones o'er the tide,
2. Though hid by clouds from mortal eye, That land is not far off we know; For visions of our home on high,

Launch one by one their boats a - way; O is that mys - tic voyage long, From mortal to im - mortal shore?
Are oft vouchsafed to saints be - low; And oft the clouds that o'er it throw Their veil, uplifted for our sight,

Or may we hear the welcome song, Soon as we touch the trembling oar? Soon as we touch the trembling oar?
With purple, gold, and sapphire glow, Re-ful-gent with ce - les - tial light, Re-ful-gent with ce - les - tial light.

1. Fa-ther, en-thron'd a-bove, Hear us in gra-cious love, Ae-cept our vows; Ho-ly and Sov'-reign Lord, Keep thou the watch and ward, Be the per-pet-nal guard Of this thy house.

2. This Temple, pure and fair,
One Spirit's faith and prayer,
One heart alone,
To thy immortal praise
In holy trust doth raise;
O God of truth and grace
Make it thine own.

3. Thou, the Anointed One,
God's own eternal Son.
Grant us thine aid;
Here let thy favor dwell,
Here may thy praises swell;
Savior, Immanuel,
Be thou our Head.

4. Jehovah—Lord and King,
Angels thy glory sing
Through endless days;
World without end to thee,
To thy great Majesty,
Father, Son, Spirit, be Eternal praise!

Steal softly from those healthful spheres,
To bathe the soul with breath of balm,
To soothe its sorrows, dry its tears;
Yea, sometimes listening ears may gain
The chorus of the white-robed choir,
5 Transported, catch the sweet refrain
Of spirit voice, and harp, and lyre.

4. There now our loved ones sweetly rest;
Safe o'er the flood, they nevermore
Shall heed the billows on its breast,
Or storms that beat along the shore;
Down from those seats their eyes they cast,
And long with us their joys to share;
When we in turn the flood have pass'd,
Shall we all meet our loved ones there?

Springs from its grateful fountain; 'Tis not where kindred souls abound, Though that is almost heaven,
 Beneath the waves' commotion; Darkly the pall of night was thrown Around me, faint with terror;
 Im-mor-tal Je - sus hear me! Then, quick as thought, I felt him mine, My Saviour stood before me;

But where I first my Savior found, And felt my sins for-giv-en.
 In that dark hour how did my groan Ascend for years of er - ror.
 I saw his brightness round me shine, And shouted, glo - ry! glo - ry!

 O sacred hour! O hallowed spot!
 Where love divine first found me;
 Wherever falls my distant lot,
 My heart shall linger round thee
 And when from earth I rise to soar
 Up to my home in heaven,
 Down will I cast my eyes once more,
 Where I was first forgiven.

If the following touching little poem should remind some surviving parent of broken promises, or incite some thoughtless youth to meet that mother in heaven, whose last care was for him, it will have served one of the noblest purposes to which Music and Poetry can be consecrated.

1. Raise my pil-low, husband dear-est, Faint and fainter comes my breath; And these shadows stealing slow-ly,

Must, I know, be those of death. Sit down close be-side me darling, Let me clasp your warm, strong hand;

Your's, that ever has sustain'd me To the bor-ders of this land.

I've had visions, and been dreaming
O'er the past of joy and pain;
Year by year I've wandered backward,
'Till I was a child again.
Dreams of thee and all the earth-chords
Firmly twined about my heart;
Oh, the bitter burning anguish,
When I first knew we must part.

JESUS THOU TO WEARY MORTALS.

G. F. Root. 69

By permission.

With expression.

1. Je - sus thou to weary mor-tals, Art the price of lib-er - ty; Op - en-ing the golden por-tals Of our immor-tal - i - ty;

Source of life to all the living, All we wish and all we share, Blessed hope, each hour inspiring, Of our "mansions bright and fair."

2. In the hour of sad bereavement,
And of desolating strife,
Thou dost crown each heart-achievement
On the battle-field of life;
Giving sweetest consolation
In the sorrows we deplore,
And the richest coronation
When the mortal strife is o'er.

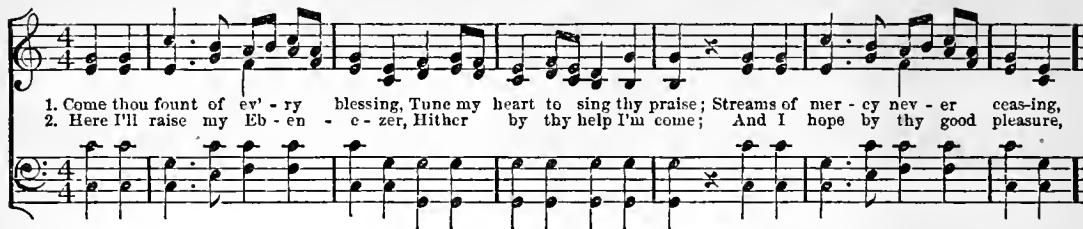

3. Hasten then, ye ransomed legions,
Lift the royal banner high;
Let it wave throughout the regions
In which men yet fear to die.
Jesus reigns o'er death victorious,
And his saints are victors too;
Souls enshrined in bodies glorious,
Shall eternal youth renew.

3. It has passed, and God has promised,
All thy footsteps to attend;
He is more than friend or brother,
He'll be with you to the end.
There's no shadow on the portal,
Leading to my heavenly home;
Christ has promised life immortal,
And 'tis he that bids me come.

4. Bring my boys unto my bedside,
My last blessing let them keep;
But they're sleeping—do not wake them,
They'll learn soon enough to weep.
Tell them often of their mother,
Kiss them for me when they wake;
Lead them gently in life's pathway,
Love them doubly for my sake.

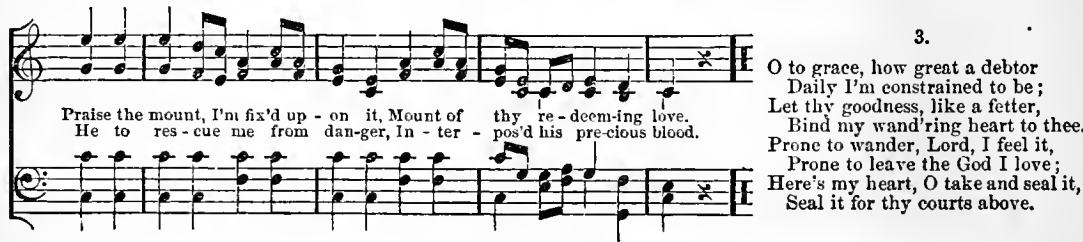

5. Clasp my hand still closer, darling,
This the last night of my life;
For to-morrow I shall never Answer when you call me wife.
Fare thee well my noble husband,
Faint not 'neath the chast'ning rod;
Throw thy strong arm 'round the children,
Keep them close to thee and God.

MERCY AND LOVE. Concluded.

73

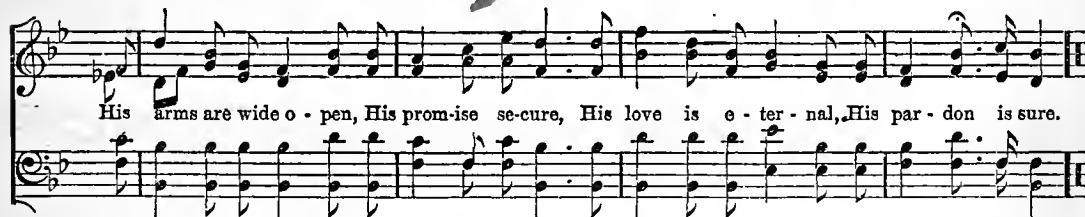

A Sa - vior stands pleading, his arms are outspread, There is hope, There is hope.
The clouds like a shad - ow will pass a - way soon, There is hope, There is hope.

CHORUS,

O fly to the re-gions of Mer - cy, O fly, For Je - sus stands pleading, His spir-it is nigh,

His arms are wide o - pen, His prom-ise se-cure, His love is e - ter - nal, His par - don is sure.

3. The light, the bright light, so wond'rous and fair,
How it breaks from above;
For Jesus hath promised his glories to share,
Mid the light of his love.—Chorus.

4. Then cease every sorrow, the weary shall rest,
In his love, in his love;
In palace of glory, Sweet Home of the blest,
There is love, there is love.—Chorus.

1. The winds began to howl, O'er land and sea; And distant thunders roll, O'er Gal - i - lee;
 2. And o'er the dark, wild deep, The waves dash'd high; No rest to wea - ry feet, No hav - en nigh;
 3. Then, then arose the ery From ev' - ry tongue, Is there no hav - en nigh? What shall be done?

Still fierce - er rose the blast, While viv - id light'nings flash'd, And roll - ing thun - der crash'd o'er troubled sea.
 Fierce ter - ror fill'd each soul, And wave o'er wave did roll, And clouds swept as a scroll In ter - ror by.
 And still the tor - rents pour, Dark waves fly dash - ing o'er, While drift - ing from the shore; What shall be done? Rit.

CHORUS.
 Save Lord, or we per - ish, The sturdy boatmen cry, Save Lord, or we per - ish, Is still the mournful cry.

ON JORDAN'S STORMY BANKS I STAND.

D. C. JOHN. 77

"And there shall be no night there."—(REV. xxi. 5.)

Very spirited.

1. On Jor-dan's storm-y banks I stand, And cast a wish-ful eye To Ca-naan's fair and hap-py land,
2. There gen'rous fruits that nev-er fail, On trees im-mor-tal grow; There rock and hill, and brook and vale,

Repeat pin.

Where my pos-ses-sions lie. O the trans-port-ing rapt'rous scene, That rises to my sight!
With milk and hon-ey flow. O'er all those wide, ex-teud-ed plains Shines one e-ter-nal day;

Sweet fields ar-ray'd in liv-ing green, And rivers of de-light.
There God the Son for-ev-er reigns, And scatters night away.

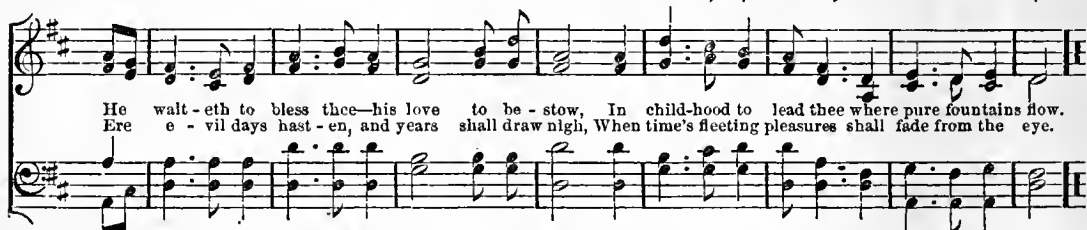

When shall I reach that bappy place,
And be forever blest;
When shall I see my Father's face,
And in his bosom rest.
Filled with delight, my raptured soul
Would here no longer stay;
Though Jordan's waves around me roll,
Fearless I'd launch away.

FORGET NOT THE SAVIOR.

JNO. R. SWENEY.

1. For - get not the Sa - vior in youth's hap - py day, He asks for thy heart ere by sin led as - tray:
2. To - day he is call - ing the lambs to his fold, Ere lost on the moun - tains of sin, dark and cold;

He wait - eth to bless thee—his love to be - stow, In child - hood to lead thee where pure fountains flow.
Ere e - vil days hast - en, and years shall draw nigh, When time's fleeting pleasures shall fade from the eye.

3. Oh! now he invites thee his mercy to share,
To seek his protection, his guidance and care;
To follow his teachings—his precepts obey,
And yield to his spirit ere taken away.

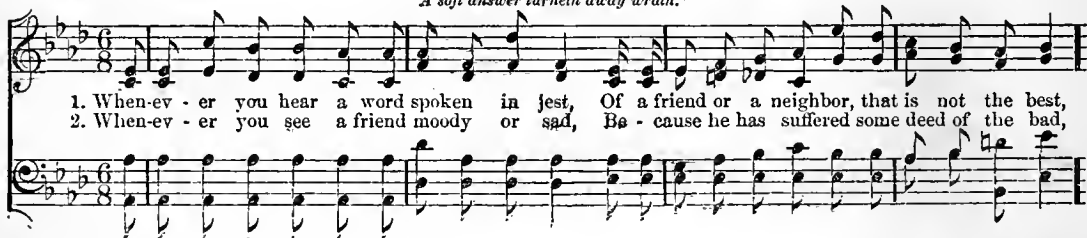

4. Oh! come, then, to Jesus, as children may come,
And find at his altars a refuge and home—
He took them on earth in the arms of his love,
And welcomes them still to his mansions above.

Be sure not to heed it, And nev - er re - peat it; Be the tongue of un-kindness for - ev - er at rest.
Be sure to befriend him, And kindly de - fend him; A word of pure kindness will make the heart glad.

Speak kind - ly, To all, speak kind - ly, To all, speak kind - ly, or speak not at all.

Speak kindly, To all, speak kind-ly, To all, For life is too frail to em - bit - ter with gall.

3. When stricken with worldly ills, never repine,
Through the furnace of fire, the metal's refined;
Christ died to relieve you,
He stands to receive ye,
Through faith in his promise, a haven you'll find.—Chorus.

4. The seeds of pure kindness, sown broadcast o'er all,
Like a cloud of sweet incense, ever shall fall
O'er the friend that is true;
'Tis God's promise to you,
If you act in good faith, and speak kindly to all.—Chorus.

CHORUS for 3d & 4th stanzas only.

O brother, trust thy Father's hand, To guide thee all the day; And patiently toil up the steep, And strive to keep the way; His voice will cheer thy pilgrimage, While climbing Zion's hill; 'Tis home to trust his guiding hand, And rest to do his will.

"But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal."
(MATT. vi. 20.)

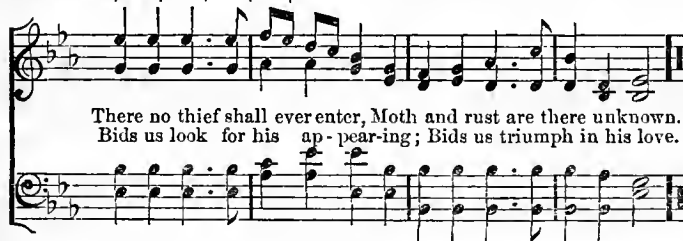

1. Vain are all ter-res-trial pleasures, Mix'd with dross the purest gold; Seek we then for heav'nly treasures,
2. Earth-ly joys no long-er please us, Here would we renounce them all; Seek our on-ly rest in Je-sus,

Duet.

Him our Lord and Mas-ter call. Faith our lan-guid spir-its cheer-ing, Points to bright-er worlds a-hove;

3.

There no thief shall ever enter, Moth and rust are there unknown.
Bids us look for his ap-pear-ing; Bids us triumph in his love.

May our light be always burning,
And our loins be girded round;
Waiting for our Lord's returning,
Longing for the welcome sound.
Thus the Christian life adorning,
Never need we be afraid,
Should he come at night or morning,
Early dawn or evening shade.

I LONG TO BEHOLD HIM ARRAYED.

D. C. JOHN. 83

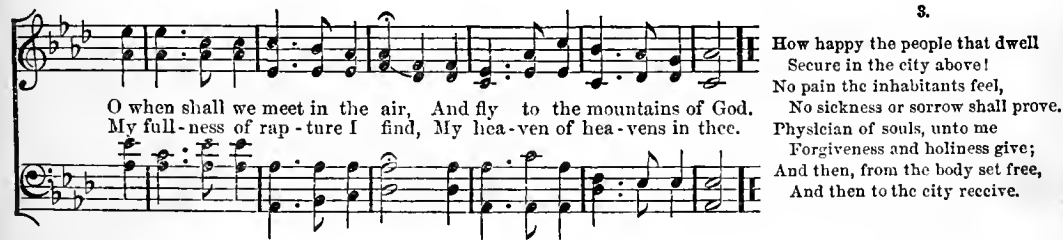

"Then we, . . . . shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air; and so shall we ever be with the Lord."
(THESS. iv. 17.)

1. I long to behold him arrayed With glo - ry and light from above; The King in his beau - ty displayed,
2. With him I on Zi - on shall stand, For Je - sus hath spoken the word; The breadth of Immanuel's land,

His beau - ty of ho - li - est love: I lan - guish and sigh to be there, Where Jesus hath fixed his a - bode;
Sur - vey by the light of my Lord; But when on thy ho - som reclined, Thy face I am strengthened to see;

3.
How happy the people that dwell
Secure in the city above!
No pain the inhabitants feel,
No sickness or sorrow shall prove.
O when shall we meet in the air, And fly to the mountains of God.
My full - ness of rap - ture I find, My hea - ven of hea - vens in thee.
Physician of souls, unto me
Forgiveness and holiness give;
And then, from the body set free,
And then to the city receive.

And they soon will bear my spirit
Where the weary sigh no more.
For the tide is swiftly flowing,
And I long to greet the blest;
Where the wicked cease from troubling

LOVE DIVINE ALL LOVE EXCELLING.

D. C. JOHN. 99

"Because thy loving-kindness is better than life my lips shall praise thee."—(PSALM lxxiii. 3.)

1. Love divine, all love ex-cel-ling, Joy of heav'n to earth come down; Fix in us thy humble dwelling,
2. Come, Almighty to de-liv-er, Let us all thy life receive; Sud-den-ly return and nev-er,

All thy faith-ful mercies crown. Je-sus thou art all com-pas-sion, Pure unbounded love thou art;
Nev-er-more thy temples leave; Thee we would be always bless-ing, Serve thee as thy hosts above;

Vis-it us with thy sal-va-tion, En-ter ev'-ry trembling heart.
Pray, and praise thee without ceasing, Glory in thy perfect love.

Finish then thy new creation,
Pure and spotless let us be;
Let us see thy great salvation
Perfectly restored in thee.
Changed from glory into glory,
Till in heaven we take our place;
Till we cast our crowns before thee,
Lost in wonder, love, and praise.

HARK! THE SONG OF JUBILEE.

D. C. JOHN.

"For he must reign till he hath put all his enemies under his feet."—(II COR. xv. 25.)

1. Hark! the song of Ju - bi - lee, Loud as might-y thun - ders roar, Or the full - ness of the sea, When it
 2. Hal - le - lu - jah! hark! the sound, Swells from centre to the sky, Hal - le - lu - jah! all a - round, Joyful breaks up - on the shore, up - on the shore: Hal - le - lu - jah! for the Lord God om - nip - o - tent shall reign;

 let the ech - o fly, the ech - o fly, See Jehovah's banner furl'd, Sheath'd his sword; he speaks—'tis done;

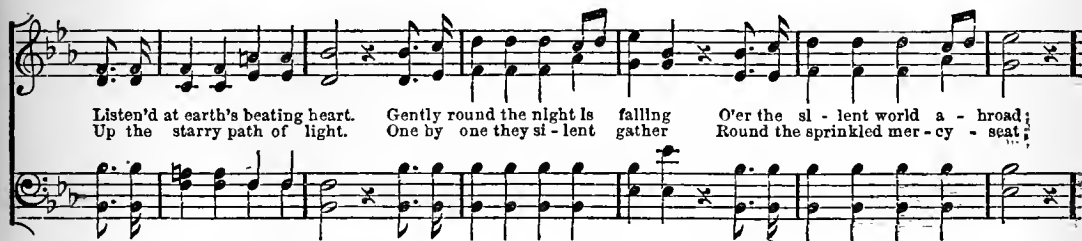

Hal - le - lu - jah! let the word Ech - o round the earth and main.
 And the kingdoms of this world Are the king - doms of his son.

 He shall reign from pole to pole
 With illimitable sway;
 He shall reign when, like a scroll,
 Yonder heav'n's have pass'd away;
 Then, the end—beneath his rod
 Man's last enemy shall fall;
 Hallelujah! Christ in God,
 God in Christ, is all in all.

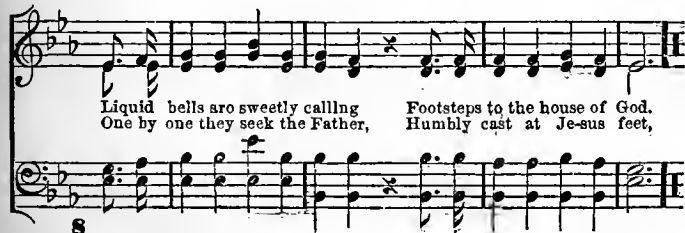

1. Quiet is the hour of e - ven      Ere the Sabbath from us part;      E'en as though the ear of heaven
2. And God's angel still doth linger      Ere he take from earth his flight;      Pointing with his lifted finger

Listen'd at earth's beating heart.      Gently round the night is falling      O'er the si - lent world a - broad;
Up the starry path of light.      One by one they si - lent gather      Round the sprinkled mer - cy - seat;

Liquid bells are sweetly calling      Footsteps to the house of God.
One by one they seek the Father,      Humbly cast at Je - sus feet,

On the knee of deep contrition
Bends each soul in earnest prayer;
On the wings of strong petition
Waits to God its every care.
Listen to the bells sweet calling;
Thus the holy Sabbath crown;
And, as dews are gently falling,
Shall the peace of God come down,

OH, GLORIOUS HOPE OF PERFECT LOVE!

D. C. JOHN.

"Whom having not seen, . . . yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory."—(II PETER ii. 8.)Earnestly.

1. Oh, glo-rious hope of per-fect love! It lifts me up to things a-bove, It bears on ea-gle's wings:
 2. Re-joic-ing now in a-nest hope, I stand, and from the moun-tain top See all the land be-low;
 3. Oh, that I might at once go up! No more on this side Jor-dan stop, But now the land pos-sess;

It gives my rav-ish'd soul a taste, And makes me for some mo-ments feast With Je-sus' priests and kings.
 Riv-ers of milk and hon-ey rise, And all the fruits of Par-a-dise In end-less plen-ty grow.
 This mo-ment end my le-gal years; Sor-rows and sins, and doubts and fears, A howl-ing wil-der-ness.

THE STAR OF BETHLEHEM.

D. C. JOHN.

"And lo! the star which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was."—(MATT. ii. 9.)Joyously.

1. There's a song in the air, there's a star in the sky! There's a moth-er's deep pray'r and a ba-by's low cry!
 2. There's a tu-mult of joy, o'er the won-der-ful birth, For the Vir-gin's sweet hoy is the Lord of the earth;

And the star reigns its fire while the beau - ti - ful sing, For the man - ger of Beth - le - hem cra - dles a king!
 And the star reigns its fire while the beau - ti - ful sing, For the man - ger of Beth - le - hem cra - dles a king!

Un - til ev' - ry lost pil - grim is gath - er'd safe home.

3. In the light of that star lie the ages impearled,
 And the song from afar has swept over the world,
 Every heart is aflame, and the beautiful sing
 In the homes of the nations that Jesus is King.

Refrain.

4. We rejoice in the light, and we echo the song [throng;
 That comes down thro' the night from the heav'nly
 Ay! we shout to the lovely evangel they bring,
 And we greet in his cradle our Savior and King.

SAVE ONE.

JNO. R. SWENET.

"He that converteth a sinner from the error of his way, shall save a soul from death, and shall hide a multitude of sins."—(JAMES v. 20.)

1. Souls are per-ish-ing be-fore thee, Save, save one! It may be thy crown of glo-ry,
2. Not in thy own strength confiding, Save, save one! Faith and pray'r thy efforts guiding,

Save, save one! From the waves that would devour, From the rag-ing li-on's pow-er,
Save, save one! None can e'er, un-less pos-sess-ing Heav'n-ly aid and heav'nly blessing, 3.

Who the worth of souls can measure?
Save, save one!
Who can count the priceless treasure?
Save, save one!
Like the star shall shine forever
Those who faithfully endeavor
Dying sinners to deliver;
Save, save one!

From destruction's fiery show-er, Save, save one!
To the work of mercy press-ing, Save, save one!

I thirst, I faint, I die to prove The greatness of re-deem-ing love, The love of Christ to me.

2. Stronger his love than death or hell;
Its riches are unsearchable;
The first born sons of light
Desire in vain its depths to see.
They cannot reach the mystery,
The length, the breadth, the height.

pil-grim-age is o'er: We shall dwell 'mid joys su-per-nal, In that blest for-ev-er-more.

3. Doth the way seem dark before thee?
Doth life's sky look black and drear?
By-and-by those clouds will vanish,
Trusting wait, and never fear.—Chorus.

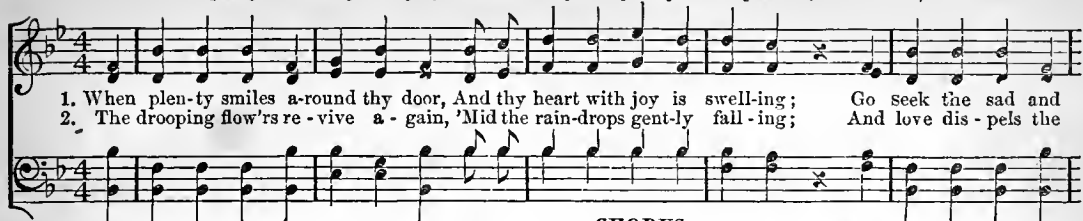

4. By-and-by that joyful summons,
Christ shall send to call thee home;
'Mid life's sorrows sweetly sounding,
Rise, my weary child, and come.—Chorus.

O BE KIND TO THE POOR.

D. C. JOHN. 117

"The poor ye have always with you, and whosoever ye will ye may do them good."—(MARK xlv. 7.)

O be kind, to the poor,
To the sick, the faint, the weary; O be kind, . . . to the poor, . . . and God will bless your store.

3. The Savior left his poor below,
Committed to thy keeping;
O heed their cry and thou shalt know
The blessedness of giving.—Chorus.

O be kind, to the poor.

4. If thou wilt share thy hounteous store,
With the sick, the poor, the needy;
The Lord will bless thee more and more,
And in distress relieve thee.—Chorus.

SPRING CAROL.

D. C. JOHN.

"For lo, the winter is past, the rain is over and gone; the flowers appear on the earth; the time of the singing of birds is come, and the voice of the turtle is heard in our land.—(SOL. SONG, ii, 11, 12.)

1. When verdure clothes the fertile vale, And blossom's deck the spray; When fragrance breathes in ev' - ry gale, How sweet the ver - nal day.

2. Hark! how the feather'd warblers sing;
'Tis nature's cheerful voice;
Soft music hails the lovely spring,
And woods and fields rejoice.

3. How kind the influence of the skies!
The show'rs, with blessings fraught,
Bid nature, beauty, fragrance, rise,
And fix the roving heart.

IT MAY BE IN THE EVENING.

D. C. JOHN.

"Be ye therefore ready also, for the Son of Man cometh at an hour when ye think not."—(LUKE xii. 40.)

1. It may be in the ev'ning, When the work of day is done; It may be when the
 2. It may be when the mid-night Is hea-ry on the land; When the waves are moan-ing twi-light Is soft-ly steal-ing on; When the long, bright day dies slowly, And the hour grows calm and sad-ly A - long the o - cean strand; When the lamps are burning faintly, And the weary world breathes ho-ly, I will come, I will come.

 softly, I will come, I will come.

3.

It may be at cock-crowing,
 When upon the eastern sky
 The first faint gleam of dawning,
 Proclaims that morn is nigh;
 In the hour of slumber heavy,
 When the world doth least expect me,
 I will come, I will come.

1. Near - er, my God, to thee, Near - er, to thee! E'en though it be a cross That rais - eth me;
 2. Though like a wan - der - er, The sun gone down, Dark - ness comes o - ver me, My rest a stone;

- Still all my song shall be, Nearer, my God, to thee; Near - er, my God to thee, Near - er to thee!
 Yet in my dreams I'd be Nearer, my God, to thee; Near - er, my God to thee, Near - er to thee!

3. There let my way appear,
 Steps unto heaven;
 All that thou sendest me,
 In mercy given:
 Angels to beckon me,
 Nearer, my God, to thee;
 Nearer, my God, to thee;
 Nearer to thee.

4. Or, if on joyful wing,
 Cleaving the sky;
 Sun, Moon, and Stars forgot,
 Upward I fly:
 Still all my song shall be,
 Nearer, my God, to thee;
 Nearer, my God, to thee;
 Nearer to thee.

4. It may be in the morning,
 When the sun is bright and strong;
 When the flow'rs with dew are bending,
 And the fields resound with song;
 When the world doth softly woo thee,
 Let it win thee not from me,
 For I will come, I will come.

5. Then let thy loins be girded,
 Ever ready to obey;
 Let thy lamp be trimmed and burning,
 For I will not long delay;
 Be it midnight, noon, or morning,
 Blest are they who are found watching,
 When I come, when I come.

"I do set my bow in the clouds, and it shall be for a token of a covenant between me and the earth."—(GEN. ix. 13.)

1. The Rainbow, the Rainbow, The beauteous Bow of Peace; Upon the angry storm-cloud bends, A pledge, that storms shall cease;
 2. The Rainbow, the Rainbow, God's cov-e-nant with men, Assures us in the dark-est hour, The sun shall shine again;
 3. The Rainbow, the Rainbow, God's pledge of faithfulness; It tells of high-er hopes and fears, Of cov-e-nant-ed grace;

That bud and blossom shall un-fold, When win-ter's reign is o'er; And har-vest crown the cir-cling year,
 Though lightning, flood, and tempest rage, They'll soon be o-ver-past, And the bright bow ex-pand a-bove
 And as it gilds the storm-cloud's crest, With bright and gorgeous span, It speaks of love and wrath combin'd,

Till time shall be no more: And har-vest crown the cir-cling year, 'Till time shall be no more.
 The wreck-path of the blast: And the bright bow ex-pand a-bove The wreck-path of the blast.
 And whis-pers hope to mau: It speaks of love and wrath combin'd, And whis-pers hope to man.

WHY WILL YE DIE?

D. C. JOHN. 125

"Turn ye, . . . for why will ye die, O house of Israel."—(EZEKIEL xviii. 32.)

1. Sin-ners turn; why will ye die?      God, your Maker asks you why?      God, who did your being give,
2. Sin-ners turn; why will ye die?      God your Sa-vior asks you why?      He who did your souls retrieve,

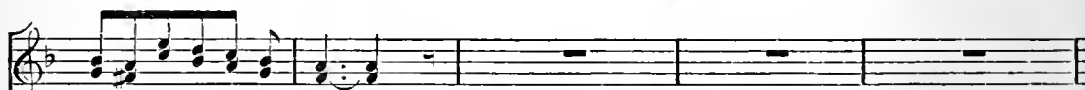

Made you with himself to live;      He the fa - tal cause demands;      Asks the work of his own hands,—
Died himself that you might live.      Will ye let him die in vain?      Cru-ci - fy your Lord again?

By his life your God hath sworn;
He would have you turn and live;
He would all the world receive.
If your death were his delight
Would he still to life invite?
Would he ask, beseech, and cry—
Why will ye resolve to die?

LITTLE BEAM OF ROSY LIGHT.

From "Notes of Joy." By permission.

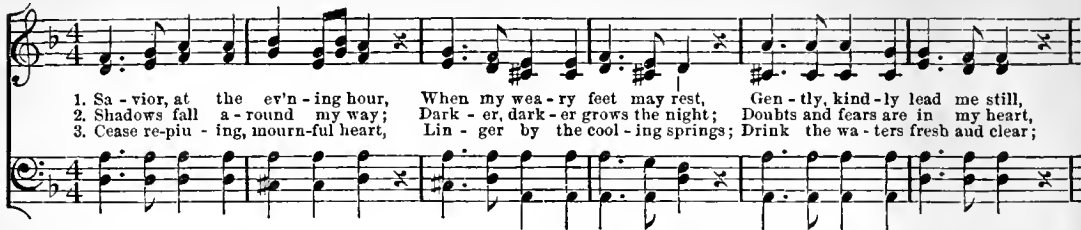

1. Little beam of rosy light,
Who has made you shine so bright?
Little bird with golden wing,
Who has taught you how to sing?

Chorus:

'Tis our Father, 'tis our Father,
'Tis our Father, God above;
'Tis our Father, 'tis our Father,
'Tis our Father, he is love.

2. Little blossom, sweet and rare,
Who has made you bloom so fair?
Little streamlet in the dell,
Who has made you, can you tell?—Chorus.

3. Little child with face so bright,
Who has made your heart so light?
Who has taught you how to sing,
Like the merry birds of Spring?—Chorus.

"Lo I am with you always even unto the end of the world."—(MATT. xxviii., 20.)

1. Sa - vior, at the ev'n - ing hour, When my wea - ry feet may rest, Gen - tly, kind - ly lead me still,
2. Shadows fall a - round my way; Dark - er, dark - er grows the night; Doubts and fears are in my heart,
3. Cease re - piu - ing, mourn - ful heart, Lin - ger by the cool - ing springs; Drink the wa - ters fresh and clear;

In the way thou knowest best. Peace, my soul, for ev - er - more, Thou the con - quer - or shalt be;
Who will guide my steps aright? Who will calm my troubled soul, As he calmed the rag - ing sea?
Oh, the happiness it brings! Fair and bless - ed land be - yond, Which the eye of faith may see,

CHORUS.

This the watchword of thy shield, He who bore the cross for me. While I walk this vale of sor - row,
Who will gent - ly take my hand? He who bore the cross for me.
Who hath made my journey bright? He who bore the cross for me.

Through thy gates, e - ter - ni - ty, He a - lone can be my refuge; He who bore the cross for me.

JUST AS I AM.

D. C. JOHN.

"Not of works, lest any man should boast."—(EPHESIANS, ii., 9.)

Just as I am, with - out one plea, But that thy blood was shed for Just as I am, and wait - ing not, To rid my soul of one dark
Just as I am, though toss'd a - bout, With many a con - flict, many a me, And that thou bidst me come to thee, O, Lamb of God, I come, O, Lamb of God, I come.

blot; To thee, whose blood can cleanse each spot, O, Lamb of God, I come, O, Lamb of God, I come.
doubt; Fightings with-in and fears with-out, O, Lamb of God, I come, O, Lamb of God, I come.

Vary style according to sentiment.

1. 'Twas in the shrill December, When the sun - sets pal - lid gold, Wrapt with a chil - ly splendor,
 2. "Oh, do you thiuk Kriss Kinkle Will bring us a Christmas tree," He lisped, "and will he remember

The hill - tops far and cold; My winsome, blue - eyed Ben - ny, With cheeks all flushed with play,
 A lit - tle boy like me;" What would my dar - ling wish for, To hang on the Christmas tree?

3. All day I held my darling,
 His faint red lips apart;
 His golden clustered ringlets
 Pressed close against my heart.
 And when the wintry sunshine
 Streamed o'er his forehead white,
 He smiled and whisper'd, "Mamma,
 Will the Christ-child come tonight?"

1. Tear-ful-ly lay her down to rest, Place the turf kindly o-ver her breast; Sweet is the slumber beneath the sod,

When the pure soul is resting with God; Peaceful-ly sleep, Peacefully sleep, Sleep till that morning, Peacefully sleep.

2. Close to her lone and narrow house,
Gracefully wave ye willow boughs;
Flowers of the wildwood your odors shed,
Over the holy, beautiful dead.—Chorus.

3. Quietly sleep, oh, maiden fair,
Safe in thy Savior's guardian care;
Rest till the trump from the op'ning skies,
Bid thee from dust to glory arise.—Chorus.

4. "Now sing to me, dear mamma,
The hymn that I love best,
How Jesus loves the children,
And folds them to his breast;"
And I sang, till, sweet and softly,
The angels closed his eyes,
And bore his loving spirit
Up to his native skies.

5. 'Twas Christmas eve, and softly
The sunset's purple sheen
Enrob'd the far bleak hill slopes,
And the quiet vales between:
And a shadow—not of twilight—
O'er the sad household fell,
As smote the ev'ning silence
The boom of a passing bell.

6. Far out upon the hillside
The winds of winter rave,
And th' brooding moonlight covers
The little, lonely grave;
And I mourn for loving Benny,
So tenderly laid away,
In the Christmas box be wished for,
And the narrow house of clay.

CHEER UP, BROTHER.

D. O. JOHN.

1. Cheer up, brother, cease re - pin - ing, O'er each life the shadows fall; Clouds but hide a brighter morrow,
2. Have you loved with true af - fec - tion? Has that love been turned to pain? Treasure up its sweet re - mem - brance,
3. Look be - yond the present shadows, Let the past its mem'ries hide; Soon we'll hear the an - gel chorus,

God's sweet sunlight shines for all. Is thy bur - den ve - ry hea - vy? Bear it yet without a sigh;
It shall bud and bloom a - gain. There's a fu - ture rest con - tent - ed; Ho - ly love can nev - er die;
Roll - ing o'er the stormy tide: Hope is whisp'ring words of comfort, See, the peaceful shores are nigh;

There's a prom - ise in the fu - ture, Of a bright - er by and by, Bless - ed prom - ise,
Sweet re - turns it yet shall bring you, In a com - ing by and by, Rest for - ev - er,
Calm thy spir - it, rest is coming, Rest for - ev - er by and by, Rest for - ev - er,

Of a bright er

Bless - ed promise, Of a bright-er by and by, Of a brighter by and by.
 Rest for ev - er, Rest for - ev - er by and by, Rest for - ev - er by and by.

Rest for - ev - er

 way, And make us pure in life and heart.

3. Revive us, Lord! our zeal inspire;
 Let us thy great salvation see;
 Fill now each heart with quenchless fire,
 In faith and hope to toil for Thee.
4. Come, Holy Ghost! light, life, and peace!
 Diffuse Thyself in every breast;
 Thy love impart—its joys increase—
 And bide with us a constant guest.

"The heathen shall be given to him for an inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for his possession."

2. Then from the craggy mountains
 The sacred shout shall fly;
 And shady vales and fountains
 Shall echo the reply.
 High tower and lowly dwelling
 Shall send the chorus round,
 All hallelujah swelling
 In one eternal sound!

WORK, FOR THE NIGHT IS COMING.

Words and Music by
I. L. ANDREWS.

137

Gently.

1. Work, for the night is com-ing, Work, for the day is bright, Gath-er the sheaves in quickly,

CHORUS.

Reap for the fields are white, Ga-ther the sheaves in quickly, Gather from the hill-side and plain,

Search, too, the by-ways and hedges, Gather in the gold-en grain.

Repeat p

2. Now is the time to labor,
Now is th' accepted hour;
Work for the soul's salvation;
Pray for the Spirit's pow'r.
3. Work, for the master calleth,
Work, till the day is done;
Then, with the victor's laurels,
Ye shall be welcomed home.

Words by Mrs. Bishop Thompson.

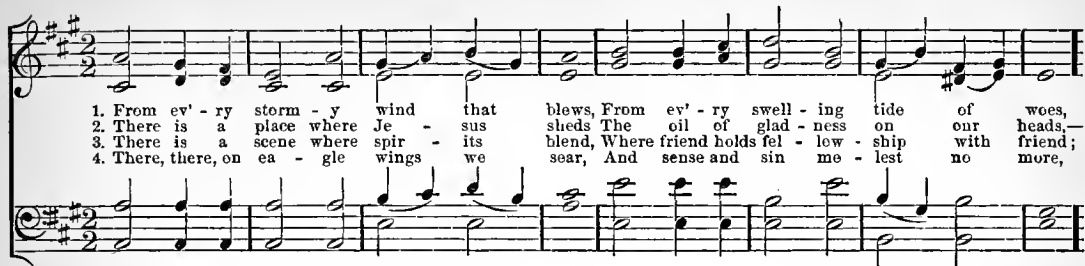

D. C. JOHN.

"Lift up your eyes and look on the fields, for they are white already unto harvest."—(JOHN iv., 35.)

1. The Mas-ter hath need of the reapers, And, mourner, he call-eth to thee; Come out from the
 2. The Mas-ter hath need of the reapers, And, id-ler, he call-eth to thee; Come out of the val-ley of sor-row, Look up to the hill-tops, and see How the fields with the har-vest are whit'ning; mansions of pleasure, From the pal-ace of rev-el-ry flee; Soon the sha-dows of eve will be falling.

How golden and full is the grain; Oh, what are thy wants to the summons? And what are thy griefs and thy pain?
 With the mists and the dews and the rain; Oh, what are the world and its follies, To the mold and the rust of the grain?

1. From ev' - ry storm - y wind that blows, From ev' - ry swell - ing tide of woes,
 2. There is a place where Je - sus sheds The oil of glad - ness on our heads,
 3. There is a scene where spir - its blend, Where friend holds fel - low - ship with friend;
 4. There, there, on ea - gle wings we sear, And sense and sin me - lest no more,

There is a calm, a sure re - treat; 'Tis found be - neath the mer - cy - seat.
 A place than all be sides mere sweet; It is the blood - bought mer - cy - seat.
 Though sunder'd far, by faith they meet A - round one com - mon mer - cy - seat.
 And heav'n comes down our souls to greet, While glo - ry crowns the mer - cy - seat.

3. The Master hath need of the reapers,
 And, worker, he calleth to thee;
 Oh, what are thy dreams of ambition
 To the joys that hereafter shall be?
 There are tokens of storms that are coming,
 And summer is fast on the wane;
 Then, alas! for the hopes of the harvest,
 And, alas! for the beautiful grain.

4. The Master hath need of the reapers,
 And he calleth for you and for me;
 Oh, haste, while the winds of the morning
 Are blowing so freshly and free;
 Let the sound of the scythe and the sickle
 Re-echo o'er hill-top and plain;
 And gather the sheaves in the garner,
 For golden and ripe is the grain.

OPEN THE DOOR FOR THE CHILDREN.

D. C. JOHN.

INFANT CLASS HYMN.

1. Op - en the door for the chil-dren, Ten-der-ly gath-er them in; In from the high-ways and hedg-es,
2. Op - en the door for the chil-dren, See! they are com-ing in throngs; Bid them sit down to the ban-quet,

In from the pla-ces of sin. Some are so young and so help-less, Some are so hun-gry and cold;
Teach them your beautiful songs! Pray you the Fa-ther to bless them, Pray you that grace may be giv'n;

3.
Op - en the door for the chil-dren; Gather them in - to the fold.
Op - en the door for the chil-dren; Heirs of the king-dom of heav'n.

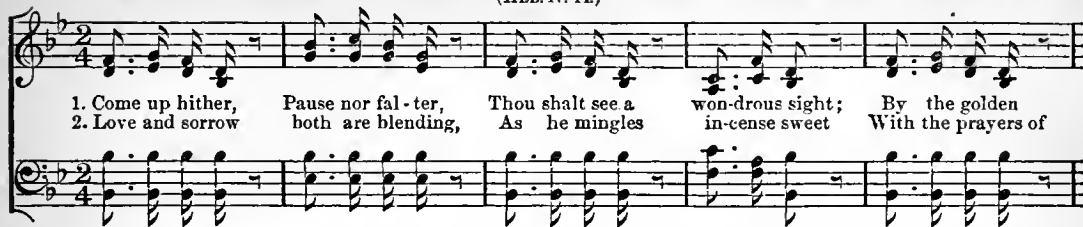

Open the door for the children,
Take the dear lambs by the hand;
Point them to truth and to goodness;
Send them to Canaan's land.
Some are so young and so helpless,
Some are so hungry and cold;
Open the door for the children;
Gather them into the fold.

Pray we ev - er,      plead for us.

3. Lord how long our souls are crying,
For thy waiting church come down;
Tune our prayers to praise undying,
Change thy mitre for thy crown.—Chorus.
4. For no need of priest nor altar,
When the King shall claim his bride;
Changed our prayers to angel's psalter,
Worthy is the Lamb that died.

Chorus for last verse:

King of Heaven reign o'er us,
Sing we ever, reign o'er us.

HOSANNA TO JESUS ON HIGH.

D. C. JOHN. 143

"Lord make me to know mine end, and the measure of my days, what it is; that I may know how frail I am."—(PSALM xxxix. 4.)

1. Ho-san - na to Je - sus on high! An - oth - er has en - ter'd his rest; Anoth - er has en - ter'd the sky,
2. How hap - py the an - gels that fall, Transport - ed at Je - sus - 's name; The saints whom he soonest shall call

And lodg'd in Imman-u-el's breast; The soul of our sis - ter is gone To heighten the triumph a-bove;
To share in the feast of the Lamb! No long - er impris - on'd in clay, Who next from the dungeon shall fly?

Ex - alt - ed to Je - sus - 's throne, And clasp'd in the arms of his love.
Who first shall be summon'd away? My mer - ci - ful Lord, is it I?

3.

O Jesus, if it be thy will,
That suddenly I should depart;
Thy counsel of mercy reveal,
And whisper thy call to my heart;
O give me a signal to know,
If soon thou wouldst have me re - move;
To leave the dull body below,
And fly to the regions above.

THE RIVER OF LIFE.

D. C. JOHN.

"And he showed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal."—(REV. xxii. 1.)

1. Forth from the throne of glory, Bright in its crys - tal gleam; Bursts out the liv - ing fount - ain,

CHORUS.

Swells on the liv - ing stream. Bless - ed riv - er, let me ev - er Feast my eyes on thee;

2. Stream full of life and gladness
Spring of all health and peace,
No harps by thee hang silent,
Nor happy voices cease.—Chorus.

Bless - ed riv - er, let me ev - er Feast my eyes on thee.

3. River of God, I greet thee,
Not now afar but near;
My soul to thy still waters,
Hastes in thirsting here.—Chorus.

THE LITANY.

D. C. JOHN. 145

With gentle but earnest expression.

1. Sa-vior, when, in dust, to thee      Low we bow th'ador-ing knee,— When, re-pent-ant, to the skies
2. By thine hour of dark despair,      By thine a - go - ny of pray'r;      By the cross, the nail, the thorn,

Scarce we lift our streaming eyes,      O, by all thy pain and woe      Suffer'd once for man be-low,
Piercing spear, and tort'ring scorn;      By the gloom that veil'd the skies      O'er the dreadful sac - ri - fice,

Bending from thy throne on high, Hear us when to thee we cry.
Jesus, look with pitying eye; Listen to our humble cry.

3.

By the deep, expiring groan;
By the sad, sepulchral stone;
By the vault whose dark abode
Held in vain the rising God,—
O, from earth to heaven restored,
Mighty, re-ascended Lord,
Savior, Prince, exalted high,
Hear, O hear, our humble cry.

1. Many sweet children have liv'd and died; We said "Good bye," at the river side; They dipp'd their feet in the
2. Round the bright throne now our lov'd ones stand, And tune their harps in the better land; Their little hands from each glid - ing stream, And faded a-way, like a love - ly dream. We shall meet them again on the shore, We shall gold - en string, Bring music sweet, while the an - gels sing. * We shall meet them again on the shore, We shall meet them again on the shore, With fairer face and angel grace, Each loved one will welcome us there.

meet them again on the shore, When our days have fled, and our brief lives o'er, We shall meet them and part no more,

WHEN SHALL WE MEET AGAIN?

JNO. R. SWENEY. 147

1. When shall we meet again, Meet ne'er to sever? When shall peace wreath her chain, Round us forever?

Our hearts will ne'er repose, Safe from each blast that blows, In this dark world of woes, Never—no, never.

2. When shall love freely flow,
Pure as life's river?
When shall sweet friendship glow
Changeless forever?
Where joys celestial thrill,
Where bliss each heart shall fill,
And fears of parting chill—
Never—no, never.

3. Up to that world of light,
Take us, dear Savior;
May we all there unite,
Happy forever;
Where kindred spirits dwell,
Here may our music swell,
And time our joys dispel—
Never—no, never.

4. Soon shall we meet again—
Meet, ne'er to sever;
Soon will peace wreath her chain
Round us forever;
Our hearts will there repose,
Secure from worldly woes;
Our songs of praise shall close—
Never—no, never.

Concluded from opposite page.

3. Why should we mourn when our children die,
And hasten to their bright home on high?
The blessed cross with unchanging beam,
Now lights all the way o'er the misty stream.—Cho.

4. Round the bright throne now our loved ones stand,
Tuning their harps in the better land;
Their little hands from each sounding string,
Bring music sweet, while the angels sing.—Cho.

THE PILGRIM.

D. C. JONK.

"These all . . . confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth."—(HEB. xi. 13.)

1. Pil-grim in the world be-low, I so-journ here; Nei-ther hap-pi-ness nor woe, Wake hope or fear;
 2. Sing-ing to my home a-bove, Soon I'll re-pair; Ev-en now my hope, my love, My heart is there.

Sor-rows in a mo-ment end, Joys soon are past; But the bliss to which I tend, Ev-er shall last.
 There my bless-ed Sa-vior stands, My great High Priest; 'Mid the white-rob'd angel bands, Soon I shall rest.

HEAVENLY HOME.

see the light, That gilds my heav'nly home. Heav'nly home, etc.
died for me, And now he calls me home. Heav'nly home, etc.

Heav'nly home, Heav'nly home, name, . . . . to me! I love to think the time will come, When I shall rest at home.

Precious name to me!

1. Guide me, O thou great Je-ho - vah, Pil-grim thro' this bar-ren land; I am weak but thou art migh - ty,
 2. Op - en Lord, the crys - tal fount-ain, Whence the healing streams do flow; Let the fie - ry, cloud - y pil - lar,
 3. When I tread the verge of Jor - dan, Bid my anx - ious fears sub-side; Bear me through the swelling eur-rent,

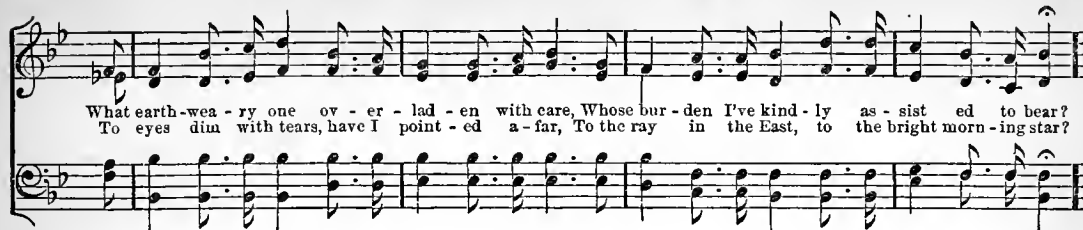

Hold me with thy pow'rful hand; Bread of hea - ven, Bread of hea - ven, Feed me till I want no more.
 Lead me all my jour-ney thro'; Strong de-liv' - rer, Strong de-liv' - rer, Be thou still my strength and shield.
 Land me safe on Ca-naan's side: Songs of prais-es, Songs of prais-es, I will ev - er give to thee.

WHAT HAVE I DONE FOR THE MASTER.

J. H. TENNEY.
By permission.

1. Oh, where is the sad heart made hap - py to-day? O'er whom hath my spi - rit dif-fus'd a glad ray?
 2. In ad-ver - si - ty's night have I has-ten'd to say, "'Tis dark - est, my friend, near the dawn of the day?"

WHAT HAVE I DONE FOR THE MASTER. Concluded. 151

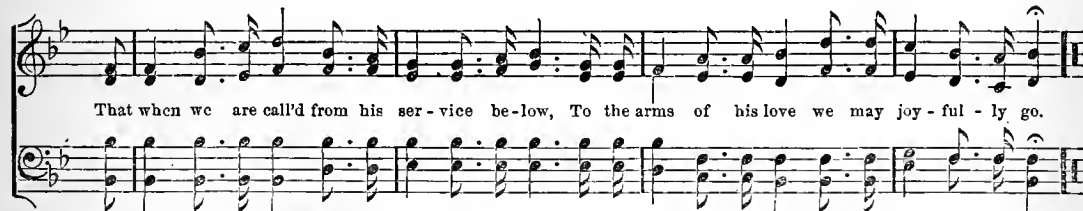

What earth-wea - ry one ov - er - lad - en with care, Whose bur - den I've kind - ly as - sist ed to bear?
To eyes dim with tears, have I point - ed a - far, To the ray in the East, to the bright morn - ing star?

CHORUS.

Let us up and be do - ing, While yet we may say, "Oh, what can I do for the Mas - ter to - day?"

That when we are call'd from his ser - vice be - low, To the arms of his love we may joy - ful - ly go.

3. Have I stood at the fount where the spring bubbles up,
And filled, when exhausted, the traveler's cup?
Have I told of the Friend, who so kindly doth save,
And the "Water of Life," that in dying he gave.—Chorus.

4. We'll hear from his lips the sweet sentence, "Well done!
Now rest, faithful servant, thy labor is done!"
In raptures of joy we will lean on his breast,
We'll gaze on his face, and forever be blest.—Chorus.

In Smooth and flowing style.

1. There are mo-ments when mu-sic's soft num-bers en-charn me, And thrill through my soul with a chasten'd de- light;
2. On a bright summer night, when the stars were re-veal-ing Their my-riads of eyes in the clear a-zure dome,
3. It is said that the good, when they cease from their labors, And lay themselves down to re-lin-quish their breath,

Nor a high-er e-ly-sian, can friendship's voice grant me, Than warbling her songs, in the calm of the night.
 Came a cho-rus of maid-ens with har-mo-ny greeting, And sung near my cot-tage a song of sweet home.
 Of-ten hear the soft notes of ce-les-tial neighbors, In-vit-ing them o-ver the val-ley of death.

Half-a-wak'd by the mel-o-dy's, ris-ing and swell-ing, I drink in the sounds as they
 How the mel-o-dy wav-ing, and ris-ing, and swell-ing, Came steal-ing a-long through the

PILGRIMS OF THE NIGHT.

English.

1. Hark! hark! my soul, an - gel - ic songs are swell - ing Over earth's green fields, and ocean's wave-beat shore; . . .

How sweet the truth those bless - ed strains are tell - ing Of that new life when sin shall be no more.

CHORUS. rall,

An - gels of Je - sus, An - gels of light, Sing - ing to wel - come the pil - grims of the night. A - MEN.

2. Oward we go, for still we hear them singing,
"Come, weary souls, for Jesus bids you come!"
And, through the dark, its echoes sweetly ringing,
The music of the gospel leads us home.—Chorus.
3. Far, far away, like bells at evening pealing,
The voice of Jesus sounds o'er land and sea;
And laden souls by thousands meekly stealing,
Kind Shepherd, turn their weary steps to Thee.—Cho.

4. Rest comes at length, though life be long and dreary,
The day must dawn, and darksome night be past;
Faith's journey ends in welcome to the weary,
And heav'n, the heart's true home, will come at last.—Cho.
5. Angels, sing on! your faithful watches keeping;
Sing us sweet fragments of the songs above;
'Till morning's joy shall end the night of weeping,
And life's long shadows break in cloudless love.—Cho.

PRAISE TO GOD.

WM. B. MACKELLAR. 155

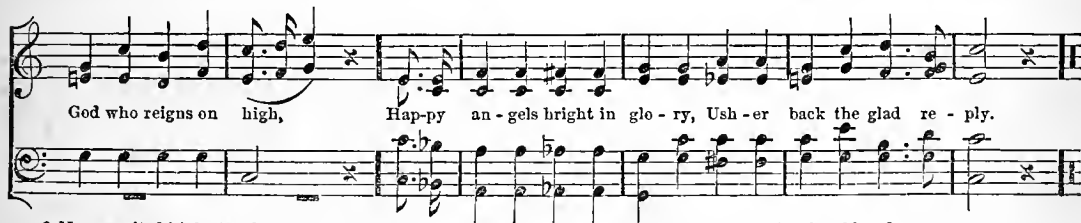

1. In the ro - sy light of the morning bright, Lift the voice of praise on high;
 2. Let his praise be spread, for the Lamb who died, To de-liv - er us from woe, From the lips of youth, to the God who reigns on high, Hap-py an - gels bright in glo - ry, Ush - er back the glad re - ply.

3. Now, exalted high o'er the earth and sky,
 He delights in mercy still:
 Bends his gracious ear, our requests to hear,
 And our longing souls to fill.—Chorus.

4. On the cross he hung, for the old and young,
 But he loves the children best;
 To his arms we'll fly, on his grace rely,
 And secure his promised rest.—Chorus.

2. All qui - et a - long the Po - to - mac, to - night, When the sol - diers lie peace - ful - ly dream - ing;
3. There's on - ly the sound of the lone sen - try's tread, As he tramps from the rock to the fount - ain,
4. He pass - es the fount - ain, the blast - ed pine - tree— His foot - step is lag - ging and wea - ry;

Is shot as he walks to and fro on his beat, By a ri - fle - man off in the thick - et.
 Their tents in the rays of the clear Au - tumn moon, Or the light of the watch - fires are gleam - ing;
 And thinks of the two in the low trun - dle bed, Far a - way in the cot on the mount - ain;
 Yet on - ward he goes through the broad belt of light, Toward the shade of the for - est so drear - y;

'Tis noth-ing; a pri-vate or two now and then, Will not count in the news of the bat-tle;
 A trem-u-lous sigh as the gen-tle night wind Thro' the for-est leaves soft-ly is steal-ing;
 His mus-ket falls back, and his face dark and grim, Grows gen-tle with mem-o-ries ten-der;
 Hark! was it the night wind that rus-tl'd the leaves? Was, it moon-light so sud-den-ly flash-ing?

Not an of-fi-cer lost, on-ly one of the men, Moan-ing out all a-lone, the death rat-tle.
 While the stars up a-bove, with their glit-ter-ing eyes Keep guard, for the ar-my is sleep-ing.
 As he whis-pers a pray'r for the child-ren a-sleep, And their mother-may hea-ven de-send her!
 It look'd like a ri-fle-Ah! Ma-ry good bye! And his life-blood is ebb-ing and phash-ing.

CHORUS.

Two staves of music in G major (one sharp) and 2/4 time. The melody is in the treble clef, and the accompaniment is in the bass clef. The lyrics are written below the treble staff.

All qui - et a - long the Po - to - mac to - night, No sound save the rush of the riv - er;

Two staves of music in G major (one sharp) and 2/4 time. The melody is in the treble clef, and the accompaniment is in the bass clef. The lyrics are written below the treble staff.

While soft falls the dew on the face of the dead, The pick-et's off du - ty, for - ev-er.

DOXOLOGY. S. M.

D. C. JOHN
